CHARITIES AND CORRECTION.

Twelfth Annual Meeting of the National Conference.

The National Conference of Charities and Correction began their twelfth annual meeting in this city today. A large number of delegates to the convention, among whom were the president, Philip C. Garrett, Philadelphia; vice-presidents, Dr. Charles S. Hoyt, Albany, N. Y., and ex-Governor Charles Anderson, Kuttawa, Ky.; general secretary, Rev. H. H. Hart, St. Paul, Minn., and recording secretary, Cadwallader Bodine, Philadelphia, arrived in this city last evening and registered at Willard Hotel, which will accommodate the officers and committees of the conference during the convention.

At 9 o'clock this morning a brief meeting of the executive committee was held at Willard Hall, after which the delegates, about 250 in number, were driven to the steamer "Concord," which had departed for the steamer for Mt. Vernon. The local committee provided a bountiful luncheon for the party in the gables of Mt. Vernon. The excursion afforded opportunity for delegates to become acquainted with each other and for the members of the local committee to meet.

The opening session of the conference will be in Willard Hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The hall has been neatly decorated with flags and bunting, and put in order for the convention.
